

UPDATE: THE ANIMAL COUNCIL
Annual Report, 2003

THE ANIMAL COUNCIL (TAC) was founded in 1991 to combat San Mateo County's (California) action to enact legislation forbidding cat and dog breeding, and mandating sterilization of all cats and dogs. TAC is a California nonprofit, public benefit, tax-exempt (§501c4) corporation. The officers and board include:

SHARON A. COLEMAN, President	Dr. Ronald E. Cole
	James Daugherty
GAYLE A. HAND, Secretary	Karen Johnson
	Alice E. Partanen
MARGE KRANZFELDER, Treasurer

Emeritus: Leslie L. Altick, 1991-1996
Judith A Brecka, 1991-2002

TAC's goal is to seek positive, humane solutions to the challenges of animal rights activists through study, analysis and application of animal husbandry, statistics and law, and at the same time preserve human benefit from all species, breeds and registries.

In 2003, TAC has:

- Monitored selected federal, state and local legislation and regulation; prepared and submitted analysis, position papers and letters; disseminated reference materials, including legislative updates and topical reports furnished by electronic mail to individuals and organizations; lobbied selected jurisdictions. In 2002 these included 24 timely updates, 10 letters on pending legislation and regulation, two in-depth comparative analyses and one advisory memorandum;
- Monitored The California Veterinary Medical Board, the California Department of Health Services Veterinary Public Health Unit; the San Francisco Animal Control and Welfare Commission; and newly formed advisory committees in San Jose and Santa Clara County, California.
- Provided counsel to inquiring individuals, organizations and legislators.

TAC is supported by individuals' donations, grants and the personal contributions of its directors. Donations to TAC are not tax deductible. For more information contact TAC at P.O. Box 168, Millbrae, California 94030; (650) 692-0126
