- b. Consideration and Possible Introduction of Ordinance Amending Sections in the City Animal Control Ordinance, as it Pertains to Dogs and Cats, to Use the Term “Owner/Guardian” Instead of Just “Owner.” As an Alternative to Amending the Animal Control Ordinance, Consideration and Possible Adoption of a Resolution to Encourage the Use of “Guardian” When Referring to the Owners of Dogs or Cats 6:29:28 PM

City Attorney Rapport presented the item. Recommended Action: Consider whether to introduce the proposed ordinance, or, alternatively, adopt a resolution. If the City Council decides to make the amendments, it should pass a motion to introduce the ordinance by title only, request the Deputy City Clerk to read the ordinance title, and, then, pass a motion to introduce the ordinance. If the ordinance is introduced, it will be brought back for adoption at the next City Council meeting.

M/S Crane/Thomas to table the item.
